

Why does the Shiny Clay Ball shine?

By taking advantage of the clay particles' characteristics of being flat-shaped and under two microns in size, one can bring out a fine gloss on the surface of the clay ball by applying pressure to rearrange the particles to face the same direction.

